

SPEECH SELF-REFLECTION RUBRIC

	Exceeds Expectation	Meets Expectation	Approaching Expectation	Needs Improvement
Delivery Body language, facial expressions, eye contact	Speaker appears comfortable and confident with their delivery. Posture is good. Speaker’s facial expressions matched their tone appropriately while using eye contact effectively.	Speaker appears comfortable. Posture is good. Speaker’s facial expressions are relaxed, and eye contact is maintained consistently.	Speaker’s body language and facial expressions appear uneasy or nervous. Posture is decent. Speaker mostly makes eye contact throughout the speech.	Speaker’s body language and facial expressions illustrate obvious discomfort. Posture is poor or not present. Speaker makes little to no eye contact.
Content/Organization	Speaker demonstrates full knowledge and provides elaboration with several examples, as well as supporting ideas with evidence.	Speaker presents knowledge without elaboration but does include some examples and evidence to support ideas.	Speaker is unfamiliar with information and can state facts. Examples and/or evidence provided are weak and do not support ideas.	Speaker does not have a grasp of information and cannot provide explanation. No examples or evidence is provided to support ideas.
Enthusiasm/Audience Awareness	Speaker is enthusiastic and energetic about the topic while significantly increasing the audience's understanding of the topic. Speaker convinces the audience to recognize the validity and importance of the topic.	Speaker shows some enthusiastic feelings about the topic and raises the audience's understanding and awareness of most points about the topic	Speaker shows little or mixed feelings about the topic presented. Speaker increases the audience’s understanding and knowledge of the topic.	Speaker shows no interest in the topic presented and fails to increase the audience’s understanding and knowledge of the topic.
Comments

Adapted from Assessment Criteria for Speeches. StudyLib. Retrieved October 12, 2022, from <https://studylib.net/doc/8890796/dr-lisa-rubric-from-information-packet>

