Calculating Percentage Correct

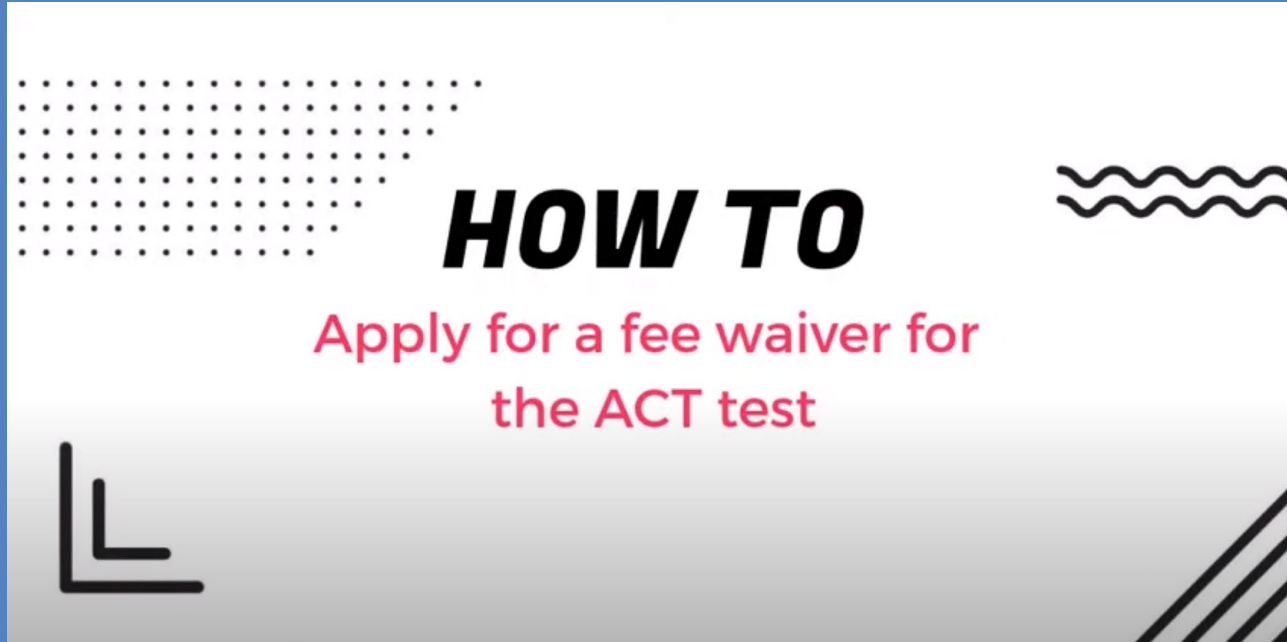

- Divide the number of questions you need to answer correctly by the total number of questions on the math portion, which is 60.
- Multiply the result by 100.
- Write this number on the handout in the percentage correct box.

Take Action

- Choose at least one action you can take to increase your math score.
- Add the action to your handout.
- Over the next few weeks, practice your action and add the dates you practiced to your handout to keep track of your progress.
