

PAYING FOR COLLEGE

This chart shows a variety of ways that you can pay for a post-secondary education; like college or trade school.

Scholarships	Work	Loans	Grants	Other
Does not need to be repaid	Earn money while working part-time	Must be repaid with interest	Does not need to be repaid	May or may not need to be repaid
Private organizations	Work-Study Program	Banks	Pell Grant	Credit Card
Award based	Individual Institutions (church, clubs, or volunteer groups)	Credit Unions	Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (FSEOG)	State Financial Aid (i.e., State Tuition Waivers)
Merit-based	Campus Jobs	Unsubsidized loans	Teacher Education Assistance for College and Higher Education (TEACH)	Federal Financial Aid (i.e., GI Bill)
Academic-based		Subsidized loans	Need-based	Local Financial Aid
		Perkins loans		Financial Aid provided by the college
		Financing institutions		Tribal Money