

BROADCAST BREAKDOWN

Directions: As you watch the student news broadcast, use this guide to help you look for different parts that make a great show. Answer each question by writing down what you see, hear, or notice during the video.

1. How does the broadcast start or introduce the stories?
2. What do you notice about how the anchors or reporters speak?
3. Which story or segment is most interesting to you? Why?
4. How do the stories flow from one to the next?
5. What types of graphics, titles, or on-screen text are used?
6. Can you hear everything clearly?
7. What kinds of camera shots (wide shot, close-up, 2-shot) and locations do you notice?
8. Who gets interviewed?
9. How is the video edited together?
10. How does the broadcast end?
