CLINICAL EVALUATION RUBRIC

Element	4 Points	3 Points	2 Points	1 Point
Main & Supporting Points	Main point about Montresor is clearly made; organization of thoughts is clear.	Main point about Montresor is clearly made; organization of thoughts attempted.	Speaker's main point is not clearly stated; organization of thoughts is attempted.	Speaker's main point is not clearly stated or missing; organization of thoughts is not evident or missing.
Text Evidence	Text evidence is clearly used to support speaker's points throughout the clinical evaluation.	Text evidence is alluded to throughout the speaker's clinical evaluation.	Text evidence may be either clearly used or alluded to briefly in the speaker's clinical evaluation.	Text evidence is not clearly used or alluded to in the speaker's clinical evaluation.
Use of Irony	The speaker clearly uses more than one form of irony in the clinical evaluation.	The speaker clearly uses one form of irony in the clinical evaluation.	The speaker uses one form of irony in the clinical evaluation, but its use may be slightly incorrect in application.	The speaker's use of irony is either missing from the clinical evaluation or the use of irony is not correct in its application.
Characterization	The speaker shows clear understanding of the character and text being discussed.	The speaker shows a clear understanding of the text being discussed.	The speaker shows a basic understanding of the text being discussed.	The speaker shows misunderstandings of the plot, characters, and conflict in the text being discussed.

Submitted on Time?   ❑ Yes (4 Points)   ❑ No (0 Points)