

HOW I KNOW IT

Directions: Inside the circle, write all the information you already know about the purpose and process of cellular respiration. Outside the circle, draw a line from each point and explain how you know that information: Which source(s) did you learn it from?

