CLAIM CARDS

Claim Card #1

Instructions:

- 1. Read the card to the group and describe the evidence you think supports or refutes the claim.
- 2. Ask group members to add evidence to support or refute the claim.
- 3. After all claims have been presented, choose the claim that best supports the essential question.

Claim:

Evidence:

Peacefully protesting in America is legal and safe.

Instruc	ctions:
2.	Read the card to the group and describe the evidence you think supports or refutes the claim. Ask group members to add evidence to support or refute the claim. After all claims have been presented, choose the claim that best supports the essential question.
Claim:
States	in America provide people with the same rights.
Eviden	ce:

Claim Card #2

Claim Card #3
Instructions:
 Read the card to the group and describe the evidence you think supports or refutes the claim. Ask group members to add evidence to support or refute the claim. After all claims have been presented, choose the claim that best supports the essential question.
Claim:
People in America have a voice regarding political decisions.
Evidence:

Claim Card #4
Instructions:
 Read the card to the group and describe the evidence you think supports or refutes the claim. Ask group members to add evidence to support or refute the claim. After all claims have been presented, choose the claim that best supports the essential question.
Claim:
The constitution is not used against people.
Evidence:

Instru	ctions:
2.	Read the card to the group and describe the evidence you think supports or refutes the claim. Ask group members to add evidence to support or refute the claim. After all claims have been presented, choose the claim that best supports the essential question.
Claim:
Citizen	s are protected from cruel and unusual punishment.
Eviden	ce:

Claim Card #5