

CLAIM CARDS

Claim Card #1

Instructions:

1. Read the card to the group and describe the evidence you think supports or refutes the claim.
2. Ask group members to add evidence to support or refute the claim.
3. After all claims have been presented, choose the claim that best supports the essential question.

Claim:

In the United States, peacefully protesting is legal and safe.

Evidence:

Claim Card #2

Instructions:

1. Read the card to the group and describe the evidence you think supports or refutes the claim.
2. Ask group members to add evidence to support or refute the claim.
3. After all claims have been presented, choose the claim that best supports the essential question.

Claim:

In the United States, all states provide people with the same rights.

Evidence:

Claim Card #3

Instructions:

1. Read the card to the group and describe the evidence you think supports or refutes the claim.
2. Ask group members to add evidence to support or refute the claim.
3. After all claims have been presented, choose the claim that best supports the essential question.

Claim:

In the United States, all people have a voice regarding political decisions.

Evidence:

Claim Card #4

Instructions:

1. Read the card to the group and describe the evidence you think supports or refutes the claim.
2. Ask group members to add evidence to support or refute the claim.
3. After all claims have been presented, choose the claim that best supports the essential question.

Claim:

In the United States, the Constitution is not used against people.

Evidence:

Claim Card #5

Instructions:

1. Read the card to the group and describe the evidence you think supports or refutes the claim.
2. Ask group members to add evidence to support or refute the claim.
3. After all claims have been presented, choose the claim that best supports the essential question.

Claim:

In the United States, citizens are protected from cruel and unusual punishment.

Evidence: