

CLAIM CARDS

Claim Card #1

Instructions:

1. Read the card to the group and describe the evidence you think supports or refutes the claim.
2. Ask group members to add evidence to support or refute the claim.
3. After all claims have been presented, choose the claim that best supports the essential question.

Claim:

Peacefully protesting in America is legal and safe.

Evidence:

Claim Card #2

Instructions:

1. Read the card to the group and describe the evidence you think supports or refutes the claim.
2. Ask group members to add evidence to support or refute the claim.
3. After all claims have been presented, choose the claim that best supports the essential question.

Claim:

States in America provide people with the same rights.

Evidence:

Claim Card #3

Instructions:

1. Read the card to the group and describe the evidence you think supports or refutes the claim.
2. Ask group members to add evidence to support or refute the claim.
3. After all claims have been presented, choose the claim that best supports the essential question.

Claim:

People in America have a voice regarding political decisions.

Evidence:

Claim Card #4

Instructions:

1. Read the card to the group and describe the evidence you think supports or refutes the claim.
2. Ask group members to add evidence to support or refute the claim.
3. After all claims have been presented, choose the claim that best supports the essential question.

Claim:

The constitution is not used against people.

Evidence:

Claim Card #5

Instructions:

1. Read the card to the group and describe the evidence you think supports or refutes the claim.
2. Ask group members to add evidence to support or refute the claim.
3. After all claims have been presented, choose the claim that best supports the essential question.

Claim:

Citizens are protected from cruel and unusual punishment.

Evidence: