

I THINK/WE THINK

I Think

We Think

What is happening in this photo?

What happened just before the photo was taken?

What happened immediately after this photo was taken?

What theme or main idea can you take from this image?

Window: What you observe in the image does not reflect your experiences or identities. It is a “window” into the experiences and identities that are different from your own.

Mirror: What you observe reflects some of your experiences and identities. It is a “mirror” of some aspects of your own life.

Write a one-sentence reflection on the following question:

Is this a window or a mirror for you?
