

TRUE FOR WHO?

1. Discuss the statement with your group.
2. Determine, as a group, which hero or heroine the statement is most likely describing.
 - Circle the hero/heroine
 - Cross out the remaining heroes or heroines that the statement is not describing
 - If you aren't sure, do not circle or cross out any names
3. Write down important notes that helped you make the decision.

Statement	Characters: True for Whom?	Notes from Discussion
A seemingly small weakness was my downfall.	Achilles Hercules Perseus Pandora Odysseus
I fought in the Trojan War.	Achilles Hercules Perseus Pandora Odysseus
Two words to describe me would be: brave and powerful.	Achilles Hercules Perseus Pandora Odysseus

I am a son of Zeus.	Achilles Hercules Perseus Pandora Odysseus
I have defeated many monsters.	Achilles Hercules Perseus Pandora Odysseus
Hephaestus created me on the instruction of Zeus.	Achilles Hercules Perseus Pandora Odysseus
I've been blamed for people's pain and heartache.	Achilles Hercules Perseus Pandora Odysseus
I had to complete dangerous feats with quick thinking and talents.	Achilles Hercules Perseus Pandora Odysseus

