

GREAT DEPRESSION SLANG CARDS

Hoover flag	Pockets turned inside out to symbolize the lack of money someone has.
Hoover wagon	A car pulled by horses because it is out of gas or has broken down.
Hooverville	A group of homes ranging from a hundred to thousands built from materials such as cardboard, tar paper, lumber, glass, tin, or whatever materials could be easily found.
Hoover blanket	Newspaper used as blankets, typically by people without shelter available.
Hoover leather	Cardboard lining of shoes that had started to lose their soles.	