

IDIOM WORKOUT

Directions. Read each sentence and decide which type of idiom it is--prepositional, gerund, or infinitive. Based on your understanding, justify your answer with a short explanation.

Sentence	Type of idiom	Justification (How do you know?)
I considered applying for a leadership position.
I forgot to bring my ID to the cafeteria.
She is capable of completing the task independently.
They hope to earn enough money to travel this summer.

The group walked to school every morning.
They avoided speaking about the incident.
He enjoys playing the guitar in the band.
She was nervous, so she pretended to understand the lesson.
Did you apologize for breaking her science project?		