

TWO-VOICE POEM TEMPLATE

Adapted from: <http://www.ws.k12.ny.us/Downloads/Two-Voice%20Poem%20Packet.pdf>

Directions: Use the chart provided to create a two-voice poem with a partner. Refer to the model below to see a simple example. (Your poem should be more mature and complex.) Be sure to write your poem in first person, with both characters speaking independently and also speaking some lines together. Your poem should illustrate your understanding of who the characters are and should reflect their development over the course of the text. Be sure to give your poem a title as well. Don't forget to be as original and creative as possible!

TITLE: "Opposites Attract"

Batman	Both Say This	Joker
I am Batman.
		I am the Joker.
I am a hero.
		I am a villain.
	I have secrets.
Every day I fight crime caused by the joker.
		Every day I perpetrate crimes which are solved by Batman.
	We are total opposites.
I am humble.
		I crave attention.
People admire me for my work.
		People fear me for my work.
I have a loyal sidekick.
		I wish I had a sidekick.
Without the joker...
		Without Batman...
	I AM NOTHING!

TITLE:

Sousa	Both Say This	Knechtmann

Washingtonville Central School District. (n.d.). <http://www.ws.k12.ny.us/Downloads/Two-Voice%20Poem%20Packet.pdf>