

TWEET UP HANDOUT

Directions:

Use the blanks below to write a 140-character “tweet” summarizing the information you learned today. Blanks, letters, punctuation, and symbols count toward your 140-character limit, just like real tweets. Aim to use all 140 characters, and make sure you include a hashtag of the main idea in your “tweet.” Good luck!

Format edited to fit lesson rubric and based on: Mooney, A. (2012, January 13). Twitter challenge [Image]. Mrs. Mooney's Teaching World [Web log]. Retrieved from <http://mooneyclasses.blogspot.com/2012/01/twitter-challenge.html>