

The National Association of Manufacturers contributes $500,000 to the campaign of a freshman senator from Oklahoma

Freshman senator pushes through legislation loosening restrictions of carbon emissions

West Coast Manufacturing Guild, a major plastic manufacturer, is fined $250,000 for exceeding the legal amount of carbon emissions

Air pollution increases by a 2% measure

The National Education Association advocates for increased funding in education

The National Education Associate officially endorses a candidate for president of the United States, formally giving their seal of approval for said candidate

The candidate is elected president

The President supports a bill that diverts 3% of government spending on defense to the department of education to create a grant to increase teacher pay and fund technology programs for K-12 educations

A pharmaceutical company advisor invests $750,000 per year in a super PAC that supports democratic candidates

15 Democratic Legislators are elected

15 Democratic Legislatures receive campaign funds from said super PAC

Legislation is proposed that would allow for price gouging of medicine