

THUMBPRINT AUTOBIOGRAPHY

What makes you...you? There are many things that we say, think, and do that make us similar to our peers, but no two of us are exactly alike. Just like the swirls and grooves on your fingertips, you are totally unique. If you were to leave your thumbprint, what would it say about you? What story would it tell? Consider the questions below, then compose your own.

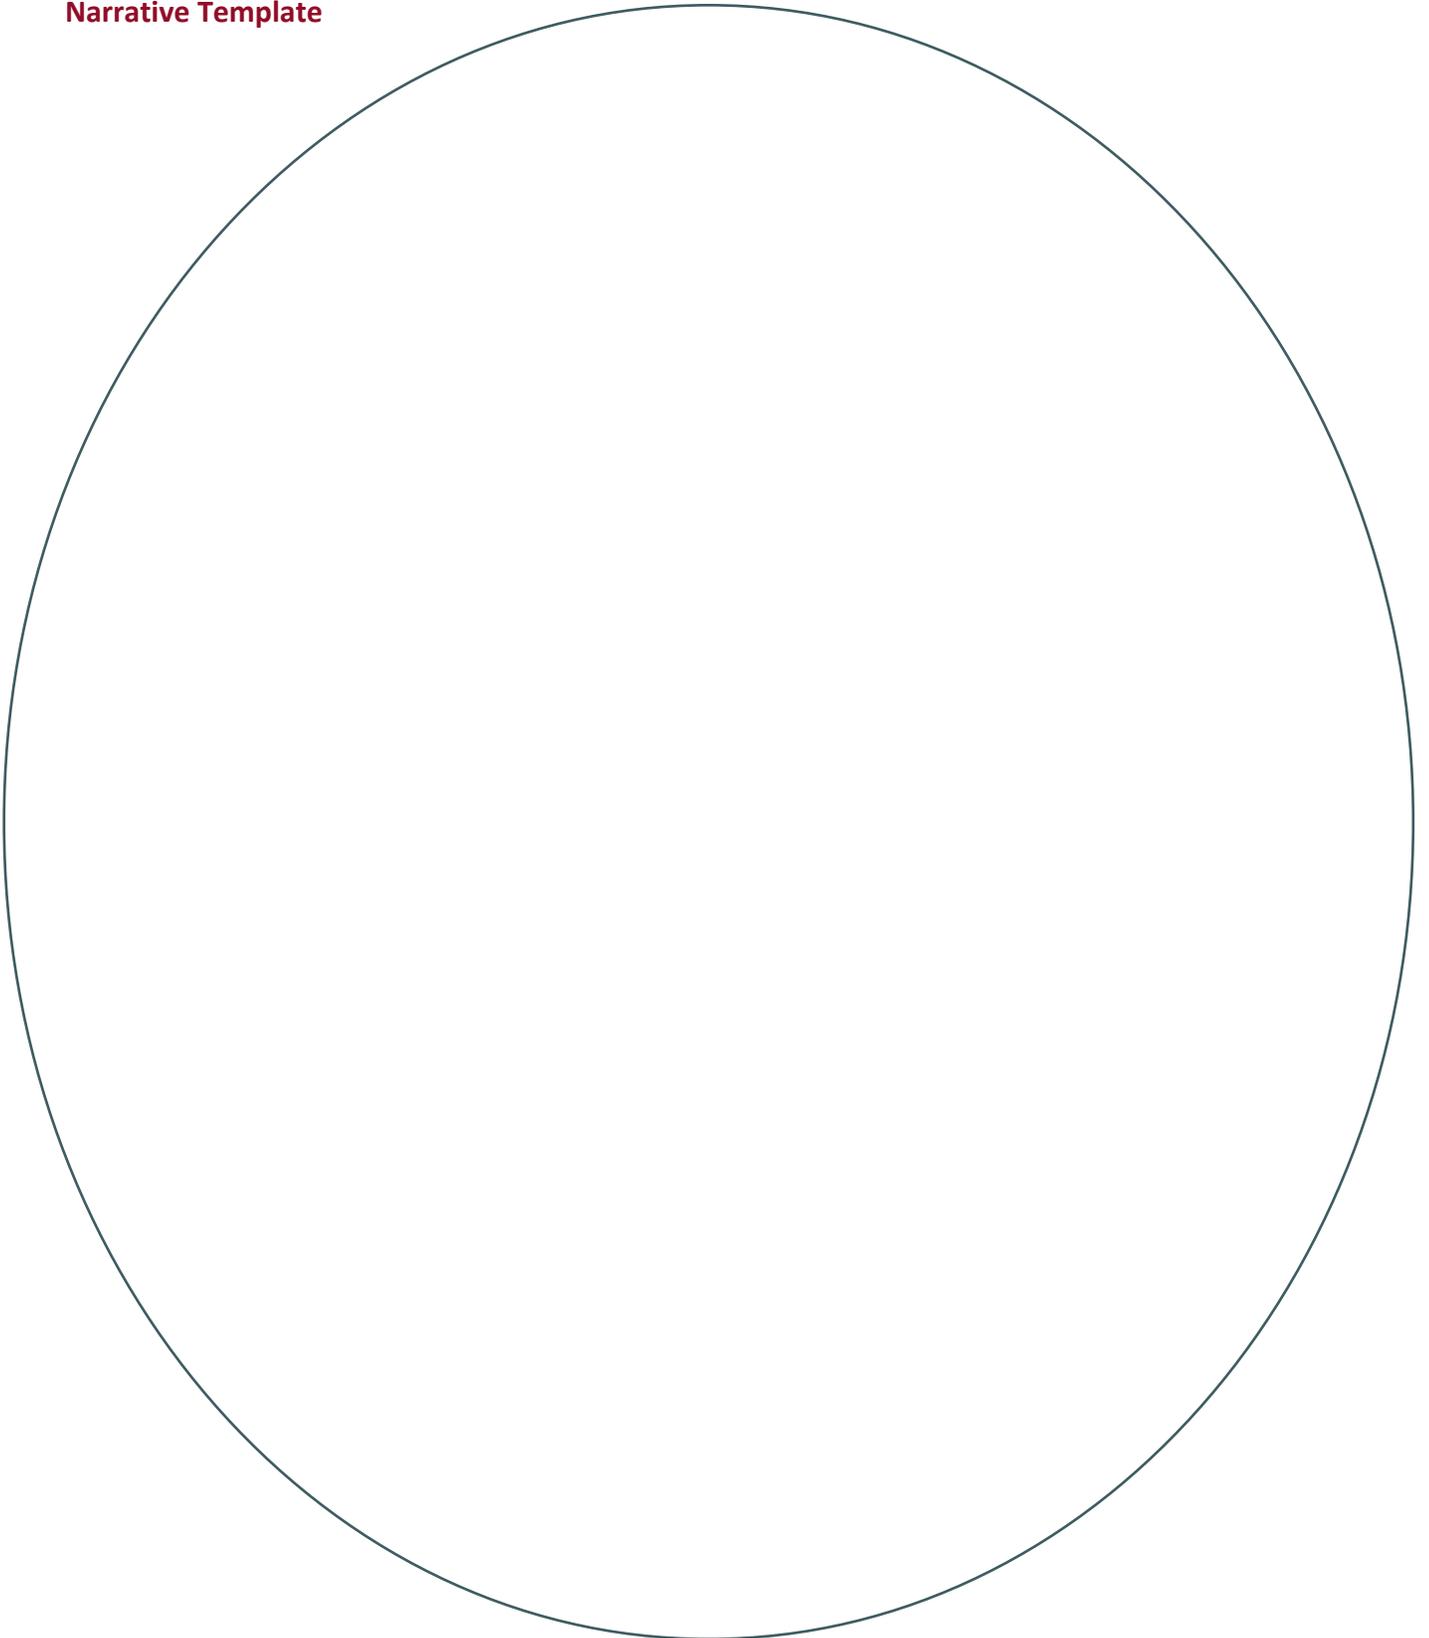

Narrative Questions

Guiding Questions

Do I have any scars?	Who am I?	What do I dream of?
What makes me cry?	What are my strengths?	What do I want to do for others?
What is my favorite color?	What are my weaknesses?	What are my hobbies?
What was I like as a child?	What am I great at?	What are my bad habits?
What symbolizes me?	What do I want to change?	What do others admire about me?
What/Who inspires me?	What am I afraid of?	How do I learn?
What/Who do I love?	What do I say?	What do I believe?
Who loves me?	What do I think?	What do people seem to notice about me?
What is my favorite movie/book?	What do I hear?	What kind of friend am I?
How do I want to be remembered?	What do I want for my future?	What comes easily to me?
	What is my best trait?	What music do I listen to?
	How do I help others?

My Questions

Narrative Template necessary.