What type of emotions do you think that the passengers of this truck are experiencing in this situation? Write a few sentences describing what it must have been like to be speeding away from such a massive cloud. Be as descriptive as possible.

Photo 2

What is life like for the family that lives in this home? What happened to their crops? Do you think the family will be able to stay in their home much longer?

Imagine you are one of the characters in this photo. What are you thinking right now? What emotions fill your heart and mind?
