

HISPANIC MENU

Instructions. Use what you learned about your Hispanic country (and/or do some more research) to brainstorm what a typical menu would consist of. Include the courses that are appropriate for your country's locale. Some examples may include, for example, appetizer, main course, salad, dessert, and beverages. Afterwards, use the reverse side of this page to create a menu complete with a border, images, and any other visual components you'd like to include. Use as much Spanish as you can when brainstorming and creating your menu.

Describe an appetizer. Make sure to include the name of the dish, and the ingredients.

Describe your main course. Make sure to include the name of the dish, ingredients, and why you selected it.

Describe a dessert.

Country and Customs

Describe a side dish. Make sure to include the name of the dish, and the ingredients.

Describe a beverage.