

MY IDEAL HOME OR APARTMENT RUBRIC

Research either an ideal apartment for rent or an ideal home to own that is listed on the internet and is in your area. Create a mini-poster or PowerPoint that explains your choice, the cost, and details about the property. Be prepared to present your information to the class.

	4 Points	3 Points	2 Points	1 Points
Home or Apartment	Presentation explains why homeownership or apartment rental was chosen. Lists advantages and disadvantages thoroughly.	Presentation explains why homeownership or apartment rental was chosen. Lists some advantages and disadvantages.	Presentation explains why homeownership or apartment rental was chosen.	Presentation does not explain why homeownership or apartment rental was chosen.
Details	Presentation gives audience details about the property so audience has a complete understanding of the choice.	Presentation gives audience details about the property, so audience has some understanding of the choice.	Presentation has a few details about the property.	Information about the property is confusing and lacks details.
Costs	Presentation explains the monthly costs of the property and any hidden or additional fees.	Presentation explains the monthly costs of the property, but some additional fees may be missing.	Presentation explains the monthly costs of the property, but no additional fees.	Presentation does not include monthly property costs.
Finished Product	Presentation is neat, and has correct grammar, spelling, and sentence usage. Internet sources are cited.	Presentation is neat but has one or two errors in grammar, spelling, or sentence usage. Internet sources are cited.	Presentation is neat but has three or more errors in grammar, spelling, or sentence usage. Internet sources are cited.	Presentation is not well presented, has numerous errors, and Internet sources are missing.