

Back in the Day

“instantaneous death occurs when the aerial spirit escaping from the eyes of the sick man strikes the healthy person standing near and looking at the sick”

The above statement was taken from one doctor during the Bubonic Plague. Examine the statement and decide which components of it were factual and which components of it were not. How might today’s society have viewed the statement. How might the statement be written in today’s society?