

EXAMPLE SOCRATIC SEMINAR QUESTIONS

1. How did the colonists demonstrate resistance to British rule?
2. Were the colonists justified in resisting British rule or tax laws?
3. What justifications did the colonists make for rebellion?
4. How might the British react to these forms of resistance? Why would they react that way?
5. Why did the British believe they were justified in taxing the colonists?
6. Does rebellion create positive change?
7. Is resistance always violent?
8. Are there active resistance movements in our world today?
9. How do you think rebellious acts impact a country and its citizens?