

ANTICIPATION GUIDE: KILLERS OF THE FLOWER MOON

Directions: Before reading Killers of the Flower Moon, put a [+] if you agree with the statement and a [-] if you disagree with the statement.

- ___1. People cannot change the past, so why dwell on its injustices?
- ___2. US citizens can trust the government to make good decisions for them.
- ___3. The US government has had a long-standing, deeply-ingrained racism toward Native Americans.
- ___4. Inhumane treatment is the norm when it comes to being a minority in America.
- ___5. If a person has a lot of money, they should be able to spend it however they want.
- ___6. Landowners should not have to share the resources of their land for the good of society or other people.
- ___7. Some people aren't very smart or worldly and need to have someone to help them make important decisions.
- ___8. Race and wealth have always played a part in our American judicial system.
- ___9. There is nothing wrong with greed.
- ___10. It is OK to tell a lie if the person you are lying to will benefit.
- ___11. Money is the root of all evil.
- ___12. America was built through the deceit and cruelty shown toward minorities.
- ___13. Fear can make people do dangerous things.
- ___14. Legacies of pain and trauma are passed down through families, leaving younger generations vulnerable to feelings of ostracism, anger, and distress.
- ___15. The government has made up to Native Americans for all the wrong that they did in the past through government payments to tribes and families.
- ___16. History often obscures the truth.
- ___17. Unsolved criminal cases should be investigated to conclusion.