

COGNITIVE COMIC

Draw and caption each frame based on your group's summaries over the 14th Amendment and its historical context.

Frame 1

Frame 2

Frame 3

A 2x3 grid of empty comic panels. The top row contains three panels, each with a rounded top and a light blue border. The bottom row contains three panels, each with a rounded bottom and a light blue border. The panels are arranged in two rows and three columns, with a small gap between them.

Frame 4

Frame 5

Frame 6

A 2x3 grid of empty rounded rectangular frames, outlined in a light teal color. The frames are arranged in two rows and three columns, with each frame being approximately 250x150 units in size. The frames are intended for students to take notes during a video lesson.