

SPIN-A-SENTENCE GAME

PART I: With your group, create three sentences together about the story “Rikki-Tikki-Tavi.” One sentence should be interrogative, one should be imperative, and one should be indicative. Place these created sentences on the table below.

PART II: Gameplay and rules: 1) Decide who goes first. 2) Once you land on a sentence type, write the sentence type in your spin option section on the chart below. 3) Create a sentence on your own using one of the characters from “Rikki-Tikki-Tavi” listed below as the subject (or implied subject) while using the sentence type or mood. 4) Whoever completes the chart first is declared the winner.

Type of Sentence	Sentence
Interrogative
Imperative
Indicative
Spin Option: _____
Spin Option: _____
Spin Option: _____
Spin Option: _____
Spin Option: _____
Spin Option: _____
Spin Option: _____

Word Bank of Characters from the Story

Rikki-Tikki-Tavi—the mongoose
 Nag—a cobra
 Nagaina—a cobra, wife of Nag
 Darzee—the Tailorbird
 Chuchundra—the muskrat
 Teddy—the boy
 Mom
 Dad