

ANTICIPATION GUIDE FOR “THE WIFE OF BATH’S TALE” AND “THE PARDONER’S TALE”

Based on your opinion, decide if each statement is always, sometimes, or never true. Be sure to justify your answer with a written explanation. Focus on the before reading section initially. We will revisit these after reading the tales.

Before Reading	Statement	After Reading
	Age is just a number when it comes to relationships.
	Looks aren’t important in a relationship.
	Wives should be obedient to their husbands.
	Husbands desire wives who are obedient.
	Women and men should be equal in marriage.
	You are appointed to die; you can’t avoid death.
	The love of money is the root of all evil.
	In a group of friends, one will always betray the others.
