

SCENARIO CARDS

Construction crews are working to expand Interstate 35 from four lanes to six lanes in Oklahoma City.

The Oklahoma City Thunder needs downtown streets blocked off for their championship celebration parade.

The location of the border between the United States and Canada is being disputed.

Trash service pickup will run on a different day this week because of a holiday.

Funding for public education will receive a 3% increase over the next ten years.

You need to locate your polling place so that you can vote in the next presidential election.

A diplomat from the United Kingdom is visiting the United States to discuss a free trade agreement.

The street in front of your house has a pothole that you would like fixed.

Your family moved to a new home, and you want to change your forwarding address so that you can still receive mail from your old address.