

STREET CRED RUBRIC

| Criteria   | 1  | 2  | 3  | 4  | Points |
|--|--|--|--|--|--------|
| Students will use credible sources to support their research. | Student only used one source that was not credible or was all opinion. | Student used multiple sources, but very few were credible.                     | Student used multiple sources, and most of the sources were credible.  | Student used multiple sources, and all of the sources were credible.                     |        |
| Students will cite information in the correct format.         | Student did not cite information.                                      | Student cited necessary information, but it was not in correct format.         | Student cited necessary information, and most formatting was correct.  | Student cited necessary information, and formatting was correct.                         |        |
| Students will use standard English grammar and conventions.   | Student committed multiple errors throughout the research paper.       | Student had multiple errors, but it did not detract too much from the content. | Student had a few errors, but they did not interfere with the reading. | Student had 1 or 2 errors that were easily overlooked upon first reading.                |        |
| Student will use correct format to present research.          | Very little or no thought was put into organizing and format.          | Some attempts at organization and formats were made.                           | Over all there is structure that helps the research make sense.        | The format is structured to ensure the best possible delivery/understanding of research. |        |
|  |  |  |  | Total—&gt;  |        |

Teacher Comments: