

INSURANCE ORAL PRESENTATION RUBRIC

Name: _____

Category	4	3	2	1
Insurance Information Provided in Oral Presentation	All group members present clear and concise information about the insurance they researched with 90% accuracy.	All group members present clear and concise information about the insurance they researched with 80% accuracy. One or two ideas are missing or inaccurate.	All group members present clear and concise information about the insurance they researched with 70% accuracy. More than two ideas are inaccurate.	Group members are clearly not prepared for their oral presentation.
Clear Speech in Oral Presentation	Each group member participates, speaks clearly and distinctly nearly all (95-100%) the time, pronounces all words correctly, and uses insurance terms properly.	Each group member participates, speaks clearly and distinctly nearly all (95-100%) the time, pronounces no more than one word incorrectly, and uses most insurance terms properly.	All group members participate, speak clearly and distinctly most (85-94%) of the time, and pronounce no more than one word incorrectly.	Group members cannot be understood OR mispronounce more than one word. They do not exhibit understanding of the use of certain insurance terms.
Presentation Product: Written Brochure or Advertisement	Group members present a written brochure or advertisement for their insurance along with their oral presentation. There are no significant errors or misspellings in the written product.	Group members present a written brochure or advertisement with the oral presentation. There are one or two errors or misspellings in the written product.	Group members present a written brochure or advertisement containing multiple errors, or the product is completed poorly.	Group members did not prepare a brochure or advertisement as part of their presentation.
Collaboration with Peers in Preparing the Presentation	Group members almost always listen to, share with, and support the efforts of others in the group. Members try to keep people working well together.	Group members usually listen to, share with, and support the efforts of others in the group. Members do not cause "waves" in the group.	Group members often listen to, share with, and support the efforts of others in the group but sometimes do not work effectively together.	Group members rarely listen to, share with, or support the efforts of others in the group. The group rarely works effectively together.