

PERSPECTIVE CARDS

Historical Perspective

This perspective focuses on events, ideas, or actions shaped by the time period in which they occurred.

Cultural Perspective

This perspective focuses on traditions, values, customs, or beliefs shared by a group.

Ethnic Perspective

This perspective focuses on experiences tied to shared ancestry, heritage, or identity.

Global Perspective

This perspective focuses on worldwide impact, international relationships, or effects across nations.

Card 1

This text emphasizes how Parliament's decisions in 1776 affected trade and economic stability.

Card 2

This account explains how a Native nation's traditions influenced its decision to support one side.

Card 3

The author discusses how the Revolution affected relationships between different countries.

Card 4

The passage focuses on protecting land that had belonged to a tribe for generations.

Card 5

The author describes how people during the 1700s believed loyalty to the Crown was essential.

Card 6

The text explains how shared customs and community values influenced resistance.

Card 7

The article discusses how European alliances shaped the outcome of the war.

Card 8

The narrator explains how identity and ancestry shaped their view of independence.

Card 9

The author examines how long-standing traditions affected decisions during wartime.

Card 10

This account evaluates how the Revolution influenced political ideas around the world.

Card 11

The writer explains how colonial life in the 18th century shaped attitudes toward authority.

Card 12

The passage focuses on how shared heritage influenced support for British protection.