

Choose your task role in a group (Task Initiator, Decision Maker, Gate Keeper)	Become an expert in a component and teach others
Construct a small-scale model	Explore, fashion, health, art, or music related to the topic
Choose from note taking styles (Outline, Cornell Notes)	Compose a speech, musical piece, or dance
Develop a comic, digital story, or screenplay/script	Find digital information (text, charts, infographics, video, Webquest)
Design a training manual, business plan or estimate	Connect content topic to a topic of interest
Choose your social-emotional role in a group (Cohesion Builder, Comic Relief, Social Director)	Choose an annotation style (Whylighting, Thinking Notes, etc.)
Choose your Audience (peers/parents/community members)	Produce a newscast or panel discussion
Create a collage, poster, original art or brochure	Explore political, economic, or social context of the topic
Create a non-linguistic representation	Choose from a menu of tasks that equal predetermined # of points
Identify important information
Create a Mind Map or other graphic organizer
Work alone, in pairs, or small groups
Work with students from another class	