

Pear Deck

1. Go to peardeck.com on your browser.
2. Scroll to the middle of the page to the “How Pear Deck Works” section. Watch the short introductory video to learn about what Pear Deck does.
3. Scroll to the next section, “Formative Assessment, Six Ways,” and watch the brief animation about you can use Pear Deck in your classroom.
4. To sign up, select “Teacher Login” at the top of the page.
 - a. You can either select “Log in with Google” or “Log in with Microsoft.”
 - b. Work through the prompted questions to set up your account.
5. Use your account to upload files and presentations.

Fluany

1. Make sure you are signed into your Google account on Google Chrome.
2. Go to fluany.com.
3. Scroll through and read the information on the homepage about the Fluany browser extension.
4. At the top of the page, select “Add Fluany to Chrome.” Select “Add to Chrome” on the next page.
5. Try exploring the Fluany browser extension on your own.
 - a. Try creating your own study list.

EDpuzzle

1. Go to edpuzzle.com on your browser.
2. Select “Sign up” in the upper right corner.
 - a. Select “I’m a Teacher.”
 - b. If you have a Google account, you can select “Sign in with Google.”
 - i. You may need to verify your email address.
3. Using the search bar in the upper left corner, search terms that are related to your content area.
4. Select an Edpuzzle from your search and watch.
5. To create your own content, select “My Content” from the left side of the screen, then “Add Content” from the right side of the screen.

Sutori

1. Go to sutori.com in your browser.
2. Select the “Sign up” button in the upper right corner. If you have a Google account, you can sign in with Google. Select your age group and role.
3. On the dashboard, select “Beginner’s Guide” to get acquainted with the site.
 - a. Scroll through the tutorial. Watch the videos and read to find out how Sutori works in the classroom.
4. To create your own, scroll up and select “Stories” at the top of the page.
5. To invite and manage students, select “Students” at the top of the page.
6. To access helpful resources and examples, select “Resources.”
7. Try to create your own Sutori story!

W Webjets.io

1. Go to webjets.io in your browser.
2. Select “Sign up for free” in the upper right corner. If you have a Google account, you can sign in with Google.
3. Once you have signed in, click through the “Welcome to Webjets!” quick start guide on your screen. Select your occupation and press “Start” to begin.
4. Look for the “Welcome to Webjets” card on your screen. Work through all three tasks:
 - a. Drag a card from the toolbar at the bottom.
 - b. Copy and paste a URL to the board.
 - c. Drag and drop a file from your computer to the board.

Hemingway Editor

1. Go to hemingwayapp.com in your browser.
2. Select the prewritten text in the middle of the page, from “Hemingway App makes your writing...” to “... compose something new,” and delete it.
3. Type in some text or copy and paste existing text into the editor.
4. Look at the information panel on the right side of the screen. What do you notice?
5. To write without seeing the information panel, select “Write” in the upper right corner. To bring the information panel back, select “Edit.”