

JUSTIFIED TRUE OR FALSE - SOCIAL STUDIES

Decide if each statement below is true or false and provide your reasoning.

Statement	T	F	Explain Your Reasoning
The United States has a system of government in which all power is held at the federal level.
Democracy means that citizens elect all leaders in the government.
Citizens have many ways of participating in government.
Elections for president are held every two years.

Student Responses

Statement	T	F	Explain Your Reasoning
The United States has a system of government in which all power is held at the federal level.	X		Article I of the Constitution - Legislative branch Article II of the Constitution - Executive Branch Article III of the Constitution - Judicial Branch
Democracy means that citizens elect all leaders in the government.		X	Some positions are appointed by the president.
Citizens have many ways of participating in government.		X	Citizens can only vote in elections.
Elections for president are held every two years.		X	The United States has federal elections every two years.

Reflection

What does this information tell you?

What are you going to do with this information?