

ENGLISH MINGLE

Harry Potter

Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone (1997)

Young, Orphaned Boy, Wizard,
Brave, Loyal, Self-Sacrificing

Fredrick Douglass

Born - 1818

Escaped Slave, Anti-slavery Activist,
Author, Public Speaker,

Sherlock Holmes

A Study in Scarlet (1887)

Mastermind Detective, Uncanny
Observation Skills, Unparalleled
Deductive Skills

Gandhi

Born - 1869

Indian Lawyer, Politician, Social Activist, Leader of national movement against British rule of India, Believed in nonviolent protest

Martin Luther King, Jr.

Born - 1929

Baptist Minister, Social Activist, Civil Rights Leader, Oratorical Skills,
Winner of the Nobel Peace Prize

Dracula

Dracula (1897)

Centuries old Vampire, Transylvanian
Nobleman, Charming, Powerful,
Dangerous

Frankenstein

Frankenstein (1818)
8-Foot Monster created by Victor Frankenstein, Intelligent, Sensitive, Seeks revenge

Joan of Arc

Born - 1412
16-year-old girl, Led the French Army in battle against the English and won,
Honored as the Patron St. of France

Eleanor Roosevelt

Born - 1884
First Lady, Activist, Passionate about the poor and women's rights

Jane Eyre

Jane Eyre (1847)
Young English Woman of the 1800s,
Artistic, Intelligent, Honest

Anne of Green Gables

Anne of Green Gables (1908)
Young, Orphaned girl, Curious,
Imaginative

Amelia Earhart

Born - 1897
American aviator, First Woman to fly across the Atlantic, Adventurous, Independent

Sacajawea

Born - 1788 or 1789

Native American translator for Lewis and Clark, Knowledgeable, Calm, Worked while caring for her son

Queen Elizabeth II

Born - 1926

Queen of the United Kingdom and other Commonwealths, Ruled for 70 years, Hardworking, Logical

Winston Churchill

Born - 1874

British Prime Minister during the Second World War, Famous for inspiring speeches

Nelson Mandela

Born - 1918

South African Anti-Apartheid Activist, First President of South Africa, Won Noble Peace Prize

Mary Poppins

Mary Poppins by P.L. Travers (1934)
Sensible, English Nanny with Magical Powers, Good-hearted

Don Quixote

Don Quixote (1605)
Madman/idealist, Honest, Proud, Dignified

Cleopatra

Born - 69 BC

Queen of the Ptolemaic Kingdom of Egypt, Well-educated, Clever

Rosa Parks

Born - 1913

African-American Activist,
Recognized for refusing to give up her seat on the bus to a white man,
Received the Presidential Medal of Freedom

Elvis

Born - 1935

American Singer and Actor, "King of Rock and Roll," Drafted into the Army

Jack and Jill (went up the hill)

"Jack and Jill Went Up the Hill"
Nursery Rhyme by Mother Goose

Jackie Robinson

Born - 1919

First African-American Baseball,
Played in the Major Leagues, Played for the Brooklyn Dodgers

Muhammed Ali

Born - 1942

American Professional Boxer and Activist

Puss in Boots

Puss in Boots retold by Charles Perrault (1697)
Talking, Trickster Cat

Pocahontas

Born - 1596
Powhatan Tribe, Daughter of Chief Powhatan, Known for helping struggling settlers in Virginia

Jim Thorpe

Born - 1887
American Track and Field Athlete and first Native American to win the Olympic Gold-Medal for the US

Nancy Drew

Nancy Drew Mystery Stories (1930)
A teenage amateur sleuth who is smart, resourceful, and independent

Elizabeth Bennett

Pride and Prejudice (1813)
A proper, young lady of 20, who is bold, intelligent, and independent

Miss Havisham

Great Expectations (1861)
A wealthy spinster, jilted at the altar, who still wears her wedding dress