

PEER TEACHING REFLECTION

1. How did the experience of teaching your peers impact your understanding of authenticity in the context of education?
2. In what ways did you incorporate your authentic self into your teaching? How did this influence the reception of the lesson by your peers?
3. Reflect on a moment during the peer teaching where you felt particularly authentic. What factors contributed to this feeling?
4. How did receiving feedback from your peers affect your perception of authenticity in your teaching style?
5. How do you plan to further cultivate authenticity in your future teaching experiences based on what you learned from this peer teaching opportunity?

PEER TEACHING REFLECTION

1. How did the experience of teaching your peers impact your understanding of authenticity in the context of education?
2. In what ways did you incorporate your authentic self into your teaching? How did this influence the reception of the lesson by your peers?
3. Reflect on a moment during the peer teaching where you felt particularly authentic. What factors contributed to this feeling?
4. How did receiving feedback from your peers affect your perception of authenticity in your teaching style?
5. How do you plan to further cultivate authenticity in your future teaching experiences based on what you learned from this peer teaching opportunity?