CAREER CARDS

Mechanical Engineer
(designs machines and tools)

Business Owner
(runs their own company)

Civil Engineer
(plans roads, bridges, and buildings)

Marketing Manager
(plans how to sell a product or service)

Air Traffic Controller
(manages and guides the flow of airplanes)

Software Developer
(writes code for apps or websites)

Graphic Designer
(creates images and designs for websites, magazines, etc.)

Petroleum Engineer
(works with oil and gas)

Hotel Manager
(oversees staff and guest satisfaction in a hotel)

Agricultural Insurance Agent
(Sells insurance that helps protect crops, animals, and farmers)

Financial Analyst
(helps people decide how to save or spend money)

Police Officer
(keeps people safe by enforcing laws)

College Professor
(teaches students at a college or university)

Registered Nurse
(takes care of patients in hospitals or clinics)

Factory Manager

(runs a factory where things are made)

Project Manager

(makes sure a project gets done on time)

Architect

(designs buildings and homes)

Brand Manager

(makes a product or company look appealing to customers)

Railroad Conductor

(coordinates efficient and safe train operations)

Data Scientist

(looks at data to find trends or answers)

Animator

(makes cartoons and special effects for movies)

Renewable Energy Specialist

(helps create energy from the sun, wind, or water)

Event Planner

(organizes parties, weddings, and big events)

Agronomist

(works with crops to make them grow better)

Instructional Designer

(creates engaging and effective educational materials)

Firefighter

(puts out fires and helps in emergencies)

Banker

(helps people with their money and savings)

Doctor

(helps people maintain their physical and mental health)

Product Designer
(creates new products)

Operations Manager
(oversees day-to-day work in a business)

Construction Manager
(oversees building projects)

Social Media Manager
(manages a company's social media pages)

Warehouse Manager
(manages the storage of goods)

Cybersecurity Specialist
(protects computers from hackers)

Art Director
(plans how art looks in a project like a movie or magazine)

Geologist
(studies rocks, land, and how the Earth works)

Tour Guide
(shares information about places like museums or cities)

Environmental Scientist
(studies nature to protect the environment)

Accountant
(keeps track of money for businesses or people)

Social Worker
(helps people find resources in their communities)

Curriculum Writer
(develops educational lessons and programs)

Emergency Manager
(plans how to respond to disasters like floods or fires)

Materials Scientist
(studies and tests materials like metals or plastics)

Consultant
(gives advice to businesses to help them improve)

Urban Planner
(plans how cities and towns should be built)

Sales Representative
(Sells products and services to people or companies in need)

Warehouse Manager
(manages the storage of goods)

Computer Support Specialist
(helps people with computer problems)

Fashion Designer
(designs clothing)

Environmental Consultant
(helps companies reduce pollution)

Restaurant Manager
(oversees the daily operations and customer satisfaction of a restaurant)

Farmer
(grows food and raises animals)

Insurance Agent
(helps people get insurance to protect things)

Paramedic
(helps people who are hurt or sick and takes them to the hospital)

Librarian
(collects and organizes resources and assists patrons with research)

Physical Therapist
(helps people recover from injuries)