

IT SAYS, I SAY, AND SO

Question	It Says	I Say	And So
Read the question.	Find information from the text that will help you answer the question.	Think about what you know about the information.	Combine what the text says with what you know to come up with the answer.
Ex: Why did she break Baby Bear's chair?	The story says she sits down in the baby chair, but she's not a baby.	Baby chairs aren't very big because they're for babies. She's bigger than a baby, so she probably weighs more.	She is too heavy for the chair and it breaks.