

DRAWN TOGETHER

Reflection Questions

1. How easy or difficult was it to draw your image as a group? Why?
2. What strategies or guidance helped the group succeed?
3. How did working together differ from working alone?
4. How can this activity relate to real-life situations where people have different responsibilities or skills?

Rationale for College Freshman

When it comes to group projects, everyone must work together. If only one or two people are working, then it will take twice as long and the final product won't come out as good. Brainstorm ways to ensure positive collaboration and that everyone's voices are heard and considered.
